

Trazee TRAVEL

Who said you can't combine a relaxing stay at a hotel with a unique cave experience? From indulging in a Viking feast in an Icelandic cave to sleeping in cave dwellings in Türkiye to tasting wine within a Californian cavern, add these hotels and caves to your bucket list:

© Caerula Mar Club

OUTLET: TrazeeTravel.com

DATE: September 16, 2024

REACH: 174,930

Explore Blue Hole Caves

The Andros islands in the Bahamas are home to the most blue holes in the world. Blue holes are sinkholes or underwater caves formed during the last ice age, and the Andros Blue Holes can be found both inland and offshore. Stay at Caerula Mar Club and you'll have the chance to swim, snorkel and dive in these natural wonders.